CONSENT DECREE

Introduction

FILED

OCT 17 2007

MICHAEL E. KUNZ, Clerk
By _____ Dep. Clerk

A. This action was instituted by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC” and/or “the Commission”) on or about May 30, 2007 against Tropiano Transportation Services, Inc. In its Complaint, the Commission alleged that Defendant subjected Charging Party, Belinda Bates, and a class of similarly situated females including Carmen Smith, Nicole Dasconio and Tammie Johnson (the “Class”), to a hostile work environment, including the making of offensive comments and degrading comments about women. The Complaint alleged that these actions created a gender based hostile and offensive work environment for them as females.

Tropiano denies all of the allegations set forth in the Complaint.

4. Defendant shall only divulge to any identifiable employer or potential employer of Belinda Bates, Carmen Smith, Nicole Dasconio and Tammie Johnson, their respective start date, position title, final salary and end date and indicate that such limited disclosure is part of its business practice.

EXHIBIT A

NOTICE TO ALL TROPIANO TRANSPORTATION SERVICES, INC. EMPLOYEES

This Notice is posted pursuant to a Consent Decree entered by the federal court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania in EEOC v. Tropiano Transportation Services, Inc., Civil Action Number 07-cv-2179, resolving a lawsuit filed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) against Tropiano Transportation Services, Inc. (“Tropiano”).

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., as amended (“Title VII”), prohibits discrimination against employees and applicants for employment based upon national origin, sex, race, color or religion. Title VII further prohibits retaliation against employees or applicants who avail themselves of their rights under Title VII by engaging in protected activities, such as filing a charge of discrimination and/or testifying or participating in a Commission investigation. The EEOC is the federal agency which investigates charges of unlawful employment discrimination. The EEOC has the authority to bring lawsuits in federal court to enforce Title VII.

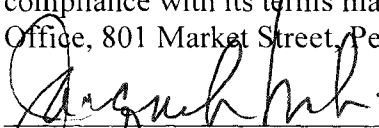

In its lawsuit, the EEOC alleged that Tropiano subjected a class of employees to a hostile work environment based upon their gender in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII”). Tropiano specifically denies all of the EEOC’s allegations.

To resolve the case, Tropiano and the EEOC have entered into a Consent Decree which provided, among other things, that: (1) Tropiano agrees to pay monetary relief; (2) Tropiano agrees that it will not discriminate on the basis of gender; (3) Tropiano will not retaliate against any person because he or she opposed any practice made unlawful by Title VII, filed a Title VII charge of discrimination, participated in any Title VII proceeding, or asserted any rights under the Consent Decree; and (4) Tropiano will train any employee or employees at Tropiano work site(s) with responsibility for responding to Title VII complaints made by Tropiano employees, regarding discrimination, harassment and retaliation, and regarding its policy prohibiting discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

If you believe you have been discriminated against, you may contact the EEOC at (215) 440-2600. The EEOC charges no fees and has employees who speak languages other than English.

THIS IS AN OFFICIAL NOTICE AND MUST NOT BE DEFACED BY ANYONE

This Notice must remain posted for three (3) years from the date below and must not be altered, defaced or covered by any other material. Any questions about this Notice or compliance with its terms may be directed to the Regional Attorney, EEOC Philadelphia District Office, 801 Market Street, Penthouse, Suite 1300, Philadelphia, PA 19107.
