STATE OF NEW YORK
PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS BOARD

#2A-5/7/79

In the Matter of

POLICE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION OF THE CITY OF WHITE PLAINS, INC.,

Respondent,

-and-

CITY OF WHITE PLAINS,

Charging Party.

BOARD DECISION AND ORDER

CASE NO. U-2804

MARTIN W. SCHWARTZ, ESQ., for Respondent RAIN, POGREBIN & SCHE (TERENCE H. O'NEIL, ESQ., of Counsel), for Charging Party

The charge herein was filed by the City of White Plains on June 27, 1977. It alleges that the Police Benevolent Association of the City of White Plains, Inc. committed an improper practice in that it improperly insisted upon the negotiation of nonmandatory subjects by submitting them to compulsory interest arbitration over the objections of the City.

1 One of the allegedly nonmandatory subjects of negotiation was the demand that an employee could not be suspended without pay when he is served with disciplinary charges. Section 75 of the Civil Service Law deals with the discipline of employees of public employers other than the State of New York.
Subdivision 3 of that section authorizes the suspension without pay of an employee who has been charged with misconduct or incompetence. Two months before the filing of the charge herein, this Board had determined that the provisions of Civil Service Law §75 relating to "disciplinary proceedings are preemptive of the subject and are not open to collective negotiations", City of Auburn, 10 PERB ¶3045. An appeal was taken from that determination.
On October 4, 1977, the Supreme Court, Albany County, reversed our determination in the Auburn case, Auburn Police Local 195 v. Helsby, 91 Misc. 2d 909; 10 PERB ¶7016, and we appealed that decision. Accordingly, we advised the parties that we would hold the instant case until the Auburn case was resolved by the courts and our own position could be clarified. The decision of the Supreme Court was subsequently affirmed by the Appellate Division, Third Department, 62 App.Div. 2d 12 (1978), 11 PERB ¶7003, and on March 29, 1979, it was affirmed by the Court of Appeals, __ NY 2d __, 12 PERB ¶7006. We now decide the instant case.
DISCUSSION

The following three demands are before us:

1. "Disciplinary Procedures (Suspension of Employees)

An employee may not be suspended without pay when he is served with charges. The member shall be placed on modified assignment with full pay and all benefits, unless the City determines that he is capable of performing full police duty."

The entire subject of employee discipline is not preempted by §75 of the Civil Service Law. Section 75 leaves the subject of this demand to the discretion of the public employer; therefore, this demand is a mandatory subject of negotiation. The demand would merely require the employer to pay wages to an employee who is facing disciplinary charges. The concern of the demand is with such economic benefits.

2. "Polygraph and Chemical Tests - The City shall not make use of polygraph, psychological stress evaluator or any other test designed to measure veracity by monitoring of bodily functions, and/or chemical tests on employees when investigating their activities. An employee may not be ordered or requested to take any of the aforementioned tests."

This is a nonmandatory subject of negotiation. It is not limited to procedures solely relating to ordinary employee departmental discipline and hence goes beyond the scope of terms and conditions of employment. Its broad scope might preclude the police department from investigating suspected and actual crimes of policemen in the manner that it investigates suspected and actual crimes of others.

3. "Safety Clause - Article XX of the present contract shall be amended to read as follows:

No police officer shall be ordered to operate vehicles or equipment which is defective, and as such may cause physical harm to the officer or other person(s) or damage to the vehicle or other vehicles. A police officer shall not be penalized, re-assigned or disciplined for refusing to operate unsafe vehicle(s) or equipment."

This is a mandatory subject of negotiation. It consists of a general safety clause and a provision that a police officer should not be penalized for refusing to operate unsafe equipment. The application of the safety clause in specific situations would be subject to the grievance procedures established by the agreement. The provision sought here is substantially similar to that already approved by us and the Court in City of New Rochelle v. Crowley, 61 AD 2d 1031 (2nd Department, 1978), 11 PERB ¶7002.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE ORDER that the Police Benevolent Association of the City of White Plains, Inc., withdraw the second of the demands discussed herein, and in all other respects the charge herein is dismissed.

2 We do not interpret the term "reassigned" in this demand to mean that a police officer shall remain free of any other assignment during the period when his vehicle is deemed defective.
On March 27, 1978, the Civil Service Employees Association, Inc. (petitioner) filed, in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Public Employment Relations Board, a timely petition for certification as the exclusive negotiating representative of certain employees employed by the Town of Lewiston (employer).

Following an informal conference, the parties executed a consent agreement which was approved by the Director of Public Employment Practices and Representation on January 29, 1979. The negotiating unit stipulated to therein was as follows:

Included: All full-time laborers, motor equipment operators, maintenance man in sewer and water departments, auto mechanic, dog enumerator/maintenance man.

Excluded: Seasonal, temporary and all other employees.

Pursuant to the consent agreement, a secret-ballot election was held on February 26, 1979. The results of the election were as follows:

indicate that the majority of eligible voters in the stipulated unit who cast valid ballots do not desire to be represented for purposes of collective negotiations by the petitioner. 1/

Therefore, it is ordered that the petition should be, and hereby is, dismissed.
