Wages, Benefits and Overtime Compensation: General Compliance Wages, Benefits and Overtime Compensation

WBOT.1 Employers shall comply with all local laws, regulations and procedures concerning the payment of wages and benefits, including overtime compensation. In any case where laws and the FLA Code are contradictory, the standard that provides the greatest protection for workers shall apply. Where provisions are lacking, employers shall take measures to reasonably accommodate matters concerning the payments of wages and benefits, including overtime compensation. (S)

Noncompliance

Explanation: Extra daily overtime lists were found in sewing section. According to this list, the workers worked more than the provided time card details. Some workers worked up to 21:00pm or 22:00pm and one rest day in June 2008. In the closing meeting, the factory accepted this issue, and provided the extra payment records, also called incentive payment. The factory further explained that real working hours data was lost in the software system so that details could not be taken.

E.g., on the overtime list, factory maintained 5 or 6 hours, but explained that this might not be real overtime hours- that 4 hours are overtime and 2 hours are the extra overtime payment. On the extra list, only the total payment was available. They only kept extra incentive payment, and do not mention how much of the payment was for incentive and how much was for extra overtime hours. Therefore, it could not be verified if this payment was for extra overtime payment or other.

Consequently, the factory has double bookkeeping; thus, the payment and overtime wages could not be verified.

Plan Of Action: Immediate action to revise automated salary system.

Deadline Date: 08/31/2008

Supplier CAP: Immediate action: The system has been revised as of August 1, 2008. All the payments will take place on the salary sheet with the payment of August.

Long Term Plan: Factory management has agreed to ensure that there is no ambiguity in the documents and that factory will make all payments of incentive/bonuses on the salary sheet. Also, they will ensure actual time records are provided to all auditors with one set of records during the audit.

Supplier CAP Date: 08/01/2008

Action Taken: Reviewed the September payroll records and compared them to the June payroll records \(FLA reviewed records\): It was found that the factory had combined all working hours and incentive payments into ONE set of records. Also, we occasionally found Friday work (1) in September and October, with less than 5% of total workforce. Furthermore, it was found that a portion of workers have 12 hours or more of OT a week, sometimes for 4 or 5 hours. It was confirmed with the factory that they paid sufficient OT premium to workers for all hours, as well as for the incentive payment. We observed this on the September payroll record. (Documents submitted.)

Plan Complete: Yes

Plan Complete Date: 08/01/2008

Action Verified: No

Action Verified Text: COMPLETED: It was noted that overtime hours and their payment showed separately in the payroll records. During the cross checking with production records, worker interview and time records, no inconsistency was noted. It was noted that the factory provided actual time records and its payment to auditor for review. According to provided time records, excessive working hours also provided to auditor for review. For example, the most excessive working hours per day noted as 22 hours a day. Also, up to 2 rest days were noted in the time records and payroll records clearly.

Action Verified Date:

Wages, Benefits and Overtime Compensation: Calculation Basis for Overtime Payments

WBOT.8 Employers shall compensate workers for all hours worked. For workers on a piece rate payment scheme or any other incentive scheme, payments for overtime hours worked shall be calculated by applying the premium rate required by law or this Code on the same payment scheme as is used for calculating wages for normal working hours, unless the payment scheme used leads to higher wages for workers. (S)

Noncompliance

Explanation: Overtime payment shall not be lower than 125% of employee's normal rate for overtime on normal workdays, and not lower than 150% on rest days and official public holidays (Jordanian Labor Law, Article 59). Compliance status of wages and overtime payments could not be verified due to manipulation of payroll records noted during this audit.

Noncompliance

Explanation: Factory has detailed disciplinary policy, which is posted on notice boards in workers' local language. Disciplinary rules not against labor law and approved by Ministry of Labor, but policy is not objective and fair. E.g., if worker absent without excuse, first time factory can deduct 1 day's salary; second time, 2 day's salary; third time, 3 day's salary, etc. (As per provided payroll and worker interviews, these disciplinary rules not used in factory.)

Plan Of Action: The factory will prepare detailed disciplinary policy.

Deadline Date: 04/30/2009

Supplier CAP: Factory prepared detailed disciplinary policy and it is posted on the notice boards in the local language of the workers. As per company policy, we are completely following rules and regulations. Factory will work with Ministry of Labor (MOL) to rectify certification.

Supplier CAP Date: 01/31/2009

Action Taken: We confirmed with workers that factory did not deduct wages for disciplinary purposes. Also, we did not find such items in payroll records.

Hanes revisit January 6, 2009: We confirmed with workers factory did not deduct wages for disciplinary purposes. Also, we did not find such items in payroll records. Factory considered FLA advice to modify current policy, to not use monetary method, but proposed other methods, e.g., suspended worker to work if violated company policy. Factory revised policy (by law) and sent to MOL for approval. E.g., before revision, if worker absent without excuse, first time factory could deduct 1 day's salary, second time 2 day's salary, third time 3 day's salary, etc. After revision, if worker absent without excuse, the first time, factory can deduct 1 day's salary; second time, warning letter with 1 day salary deduction; third time, 2nd warning letter with 1 day salary deduction. (Table for penalties submitted.) Factory awaiting approval from customer in order to finalize it.

Russell visit, February 9, 2009: Factory awaiting approval from local ministry, and as soon as it is received, they will post it in factory. Revised chart shown to auditors.

Plan Of Action: To have factory correct and verify payroll process.

Deadline Date: 09/30/2008

Supplier CAP: The payroll automated system has been corrected to verify accuracy.

Supplier CAP Date: 09/30/2008

Action Taken: Reviewed the September payroll records and compared them to the June payroll records (FLA reviewed records): It was found that the factory had combined all working hours and incentive payments into ONE set of records. Also, we occasionally found Friday work (1) in September and October, with less than 5% of total workforce. Furthermore, it was found that a portion of workers have 12 hours or more of OT a week, sometimes for 4 or 5 hours. It was confirmed with the factory that they paid sufficient OT premium to workers for all hours, as well as for the incentive payment. We observed the September payroll record with this item. (Documents submitted)

Hanes using a compliance auditor agent who performed audit on April 14, 2009: No Friday work has been observed in March. In April, 34 workers worked April 3; 25 workers worked on April 10. They are paid sufficient OT wages and is voluntary to take OT.

Hours of Work: General Compliance Hours of Work

HOW.1 Employers shall comply with all local laws, regulations and procedures concerning hours of work, public holidays and leave. (S)

Noncompliance

Explanation: NEW FINDING: As per provided time records and worker interviews:

1. It was noted that foreign workers from finishing, cutting and sewing sections (around 90% of work force are foreigners) worked between 63.5 to 85.5 hours per week [including one Friday (rest day)] in July to October 2010.

2. It was noted that the combined (regular + overtime) daily working hours exceed 10 hours per day. The latest clock-out time on a given day was 8:00am the following morning in September 2010, equal to a total of 22 consecutive worked hours per day.

[In accordance with the Jordanian Labor Law article 56, the ordinary working hours shall be 8 hours per day, provided that the total working hours do not exceed 48 hours per week over a maximum of 6 days, whereby the time allocated for meals and rest shall not be calculated. In accordance with the Jordanian Labor Law article 57, the actual working hours do not exceed 10 hours every day.]

Supplier CAP 09/30/2008

Date:

Action Taken: Attendance has been revised as of August 1, 2008. Factory management is committed to give one rest day per week.

Hanes visit January 6, 2009: Compliance status of rest days could not be verified. During interviews, 25% of workers mentioned they worked 1 Friday in November; however, no Friday work has been observed on the time records that have been provided. Workers further mentioned they worked a half day on Friday (07:00 to 12:00); they did not punch time cards, but were paid 5 JD in cash for these hours after they finished the work.

Russell visit February 9, 2009: Verifies that some employees worked 1 Friday in October and November, as shown in payrolls. Also noted that employees were paid 1 JD each hour. Will verify calculation.

Hanes using a compliance auditor agent who performed audit on April 14, 2009: No Friday work has been observed in March. In April, 34 workers worked April 3; 25 workers worked April 10. Explanation: NEW FINDING: It was observed from the time cards and payroll review that finishing, cutting and sewing workers worked from 1-2 Fridays [rest days] in July to October 2010 without being provided an alternative rest day within that same 7-day period or immediately following the 7-day period; this resulted in up to 20 consecutive days of work in July 2010.

Hours of Work: Time Recording System

HOW.6 Time worked by all workers, regardless of compensation system, shall be fully documented by time cards or other accurate and reliable recording systems such as electronic swipe cards. Employers are prohibited from maintaining multiple time-keeping systems and/or false records for any fraudulent reason, such as to falsely demonstrate working hours. Time records maintained shall be authentic and accurate. (P)

Noncompliance

Explanation: Factory has double bookkeeping system. On time cards, only some work hours are reflected. Excessive overtime hours and rest day work are kept manually through overtime lists. However, these lists were not reliable and do not even reflect all actual hours worked. On time card system, actual data was not kept by management, and the hours records were manipulated. Thus, swipe card system is not reliable.
