Wages, Benefits and Overtime Compensation: Voluntary Wage Deductions

WBOT.14 Voluntary wage deductions for savings clubs, loan payments, etc. can only be made with the express and written consent of workers and shall be documented in employee files. All such voluntary deductions shall be credited to proper accounts and funds shall not be held illegally or inappropriately by employers. (S)

Noncompliance

Explanation: Factory makes an illegal deduction (vehicle parking fee). Bicycles are charged for 5 RMB per month and motorcycles are charged for 15 RMB monthly. The evidence was corroborated by Management and worker interview.

Plan Of Action: Free parking will be furnished for all workers. This will be posted so all workers will know of this change in policy.

Deadline Date: 10/31/2008

Forced Labor: Freedom of Movement

F.10 If factory entrances are locked or guarded to prevent non-employee access to the premises for security reasons, workers shall have free egress at all times. (S/P)

Noncompliance

Explanation: Employees cannot freely leave the facility during the unpaid lunch break. All workers, randomly selected for an interview, stated that they could not leave the facility freely during the unpaid lunch break. If they wanted to leave the factory, they had to submit an application to the supervisors and get their approval. The situation was also confirmed by factory management. The factory management expressed that it was in consideration for workers' safety. They thought that if workers leave the factory without submitting an application form, this would create a management problem. Also, they worry in case there are any accidents during the lunch break when workers are not in the facility. The evidence was collected through worker and management interview.

Plan Of Action: Employees do have the ability to freely leave the factory on their lunch break. They just need to inform employer in advance they are going to leave.

Deadline Date: 11/07/2008

Action Taken: The factory has noted the issue on the freedom of movement outside of the factory during unpaid lunch breaks. This rule is much more lenient now in terms that the employees now only need to notify a coworker of their absence from the facility. If the employee does not return to work on time, the company will give the employee demerit points for breaking company rules. Too many misconducts may lead to suspension of an employee.

Freedom of Association: Right to Freely Associate

FOA.2 Workers, without distinction whatsoever, shall have the right to establish and, subject only to the rules of the organization concerned, to join organizations of their own choosing without previous authorization. The right to freedom of association begins at the time that a worker seeks employment, and continues through the course of employment, including eventual termination of employment, and is applicable as well to unemployed and retired workers. (S)

Noncompliance

Explanation: China-Specific FLA Comment: The Chinese constitution guarantees Freedom of Association (FOA); however, the Trade Union Act prevents the establishment of trade unions independent of the sole official trade union - the All China Federation of Trade Unions (ACFTU). According to the ILO, many provisions of the Trade Union Act are contrary to the fundamental principles of FOA, including the non-recognition of the right to strike. As a consequence, all factories in China fall short of the ILO standards on the right to organize and bargain collectively. However, the government has introduced new regulations that could improve the functioning of the labor relations mechanisms. The Amended Trade Union Act of Oct. 2001 stipulates that union committees have to be democratically elected at members' assemblies and trade unions must be accountable to their members. The trade union has the responsibility to consult with management on key issues of importance to their members and to sign collective agreements. Trade unions also have an enhanced role in dispute resolution. In Dec. 2003, the Collective Contracts Decree introduced the obligation for representative trade unions and employers to negotiate collective agreements, in contrast to the previous system of non-negotiated administrative agreements.

1. Employees do not have the right to freely associate.

2. As per worker interview, workers have no knowledge of their right to freely associate. Trade union in factory is an ACFTU branch union. [Employee name] is chairman of union in factory. There is no written proof showing representative is elected by workers. Worker interviews showed acknowledgment of the union chairman and union functions. But they did not know about the election of the union chairman.

Plan Of Action: There will be meetings to ensure that the workers know their rights to freely associate.

Deadline Date: 11/07/2008

We provide proper HR management and representatives for all employees to speak to if needed, and they are also informed of this during initial training. The factory provided photo for reference.
