2007 Shopping Guide

This brochure represents a sampling of retail sweatshop-free apparel products currently available to individual consumers inside the United States.

The products offered by retailers and suppliers inside are made by workers organized into democratic unions or worker-owned cooperatives. They have achieved or are striving towards:

- Healthy and safe working conditions.
- Wages and benefits sufficient to support their families' basic needs.
- Treatment with respect, dignity, and justice.
- Freedoms to organize and collectively bargain and decide workplace policies.

BABY CLOTHES

COATS/OUTERWEAR

Justice Clothing, www.justicewear.com, is a one-stop shop for union-made and sweatshop free apparel. They are constantly on the hunt for new lines, styles, and manufacturers who meet their strict criteria, and hope to add an expanded line of house ware products in the near future.

Leather Coats Inc., www.leathercoatsetc.com, is your home for leather outerwear and accessories. Check out the USA Union Made section. Their workers are members of UNITE HERE Local 73.

No Sweat, www.nosweatapparel.com, is the first international union-made brand that makes a range of products. Please note that an independent monitoring team raised serious concerns regarding the nature of the union at the PT Bata factory in Indonesia, which produces the No Sweat sneakers; consumers are advised that the sneakers are not necessarily made by workers represented by a democratic union.

HATS

HatCo, www.resistolhat.com, The workers are members of UNITE HERE Locals 128H and 129h.

JEANS/DENIM

Union Jeans, www.unionjeancompany.com, has a wide selection of your everyday needs including denim shirts. Their workers are members of UFCW Local 1099.

Also see (Descriptions under ‘Coats/Outerwear’)

Justice Clothing, No Sweat and Union House

MEN’S WEAR

DeMoulin Brothers, www.demoulin.com, is an all-union manufacturer who makes band uniforms, as well as formal menswear, including tuxedo pants, jackets, shirts, and bow ties. Their workers are members of UNITE HERE Local 546.

Kenneth Gordon, www.kennethgordon.com, makes men’s dress shirts. All with Made in USA labels are by members of UNITE HERE Local 2647.

Protexall, www.protexallinc.com, is one of the only union-made uniform companies around. They also carry a line of casual men’s wear, including pants, shirts, and jackets. Their workers are members of UNITE HERE Local 920.

SHOES

T-SHIRTS

Global Exchange’s Fair Trade stores, http://store.gxonlinestore.org/clothingandaccessories.html, offers an array of clothing and accessories, including t-shirts that are made in union shops using environmentally-friendly biodegradable inks that have not been tested on animals.

Just Shirts, www.justshirts.ca, sells “quality thoughtfully-designed clothing produced under sweatshop free conditions.” Just Shirts sources all of their products from a worker-owned cooperative in El Salvador.

Also see (Descriptions under ‘Coats/Outerwear’)

WOMEN’S WEAR

Fuerza Unida, www.lafuerzaunida.org, was founded by former Levi’s workers in San Antonio, Texas. They formed a unique women’s sewing cooperative that makes shirts (hupiles), pillows and canvas bags.

Fair Trade Zone/Nueva Vida, www.fairtradezone.jhc-cdca.org, is a worker owned cooperative in Nicaragua, which produces t-shirts and camisoles. You can buy their women’s wear products through Maggie Organics, www.organicclothes.com.
