WHITE HOUSE HOME FOR ADULTS

Defendant.

CONSENT DECREE

This cause of action was initiated on or about September 20, 2004 by Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), an agency of the United States Government. EEOC filed this action against Defendant, White House Home For Adults (Defendant), under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex and retaliation, and to provide appropriate relief to Theresa Chase (Plaintiff-Intervenor) and a class of similarly situated female employees who were adversely affected by such unlawful practices. On December 28, 2005 Plaintiff-Intervenor, Theresa Chase, filed a complaint against Defendant, under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex and retaliation, and to provide appropriate relief to Plaintiff-Intervenor and a class of similarly situated female employees who were adversely affected by such unlawful practices. EEOC and Plaintiff-Intervenor's complaints alleged that Defendant unlawfully created and failed to remedy a hostile work environment by subjecting Plaintiff-Intervenor and a class of other similarly situated female employees to sexual harassment and unlawfully retaliated against them for opposing discriminatory employment practices. The complaints also allege that Theresa Chase and similarly situated female employees were constructively discharged when Defendant failed to remedy the sexually hostile work environment. Defendant does not admit to liability or any wrongful conduct.

The parties agree that it is in their mutual interest to fully resolve this matter without further litigation.

The parties stipulate and consent to the entry of this Consent Decree as final and binding between the parties and their successors or assigns.

The parties have agreed that this Decree may be entered without Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been made and entered by the Court.

In consideration of the mutual promises of each party to this Decree, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, it is agreed and IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWED:

General Provisions

1. This Decree resolves all of the issues raised by EEOC Charge No. 165-2003-00273 and the complaint filed by EEOC in this action, as well as the amended complaint filed by Plaintiff-Intervenor, Theresa Chase. This Decree in no way effects EEOC's right to process any other pending or future charges that may be filed against Defendant and to commence civil actions on any such charges as EEOC sees fit.

2. The Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and over the parties, venue is proper, and all administrative prerequisites have been met.

3. No party shall contest the validity of this Decree.

4. No party shall contest the jurisdiction of the United States District Court to enforce this Decree and its terms, or the right of EEOC to bring an enforcement suit upon the breach of any of the terms of this Decree by Defendant.

5. Breach of any term of this Decree may be deemed a substantive breach. EEOC shall determine whether Defendant has complied with the terms of this decree and is authorized to seek compliance with the Decree in the United States District Court.

6. Defendant and its managers, officers, agents, parent organization, successors and assigns are enjoined from discriminating against any individual because of the individual's sex, and are enjoined from harassing any individual because of the individual's sex.

7. Defendant and its managers, officers, agents, parent organization, successors and assigns are enjoined from retaliating against any individual for asserting her or his rights under Title VII, are enjoined from retaliating against any individual who files or has filed a charge, gives or has given testimony or given assistance with the investigation or litigation of these charges or action, or asserts or has asserted her or his rights under Title VII. Defendant and its managers, officers, agents, parent organization, successors and assigns are enjoined from retaliating against any individual who engages in or has engaged in protected activity under Title VII, and are enjoined from retaliating against Plaintiff-Intervenor and any other persons who participated as a Claimant or a witness, or who otherwise assisted in this matter.
