3. If a discrimination in the amount of overtime is claimed by an employee on the master seniority list, such discrimination shall be determined at the end of a sixty (60) calendar day period and remedied during the succeeding thirty (30) calendar days.

4. The Company will adjust the interval between shifts where such interval is more practicable from the standpoint of allocating overtime and maintaining efficient operations.
5. The Monday through Friday 7:00 a.m. day shift shall be considered the senior shift.
6. It is understood the senior employees shall be offered as much, if not more, overtime in a thirty (30) day period as the junior men.
