More brands commit to the Accord on Fire & Building Safety in Bangladesh

This list will be updated as soon as official confirmation comes in. Last update: Aug 28 2013

So far, the list of brands that have confirmed they will sign the Accord on Fire & Building Safety in Bangladesh (in alphabetical order):

1. Abercrombie & Fitch
2. Aldi North
3. Aldi South
4. American Eagle Outfitters, Inc
5. Auchan
6. Bay City Textilhandels
7. Belotex
8. Benetton
10. Bonmarche
11. Brands-Fashion
12. C&A
13. CAMAIEU
14. Casion Global
15. Carrefour
16. Charles Vögele
17. Chicca
18. Comtex
More brands commit to the Accord on Fire & Building Safety in Bangla... [http://www.cleanclothes.org/news/2013/05/14/more-brands-commit-to-th...]

19. COOP Denmark
20. Cotton On
21. Dansk Supermarked (a.o. Netto, Bilka)
22. Daytex
23. Debenhams
24. Distra
25. DK Company (a.o. Kaffe, Cream, Veto, Sorbet, Blend, Ichi)
26. El Corte Inglés
27. Ernsting’s Family
28. Esprit
29. Fat Face
30. Fast Retailing (Uniqlo, Theory)
31. Forever New
32. G-star
33. H&M
34. Helly Hansen
35. Hema
36. Hemtex AB
37. Herding Heimtextil
38. Hess Natur
39. Horizonte
40. IC Companys (a.o. Peak Performance, Tiger of Sweden, InWear/Matinique, Soaked in Luxory, Jackpot, Cottonfield)
41. Inditex (Zara, Bershka)
42. jbc
43. Jogilo
44. Jolo Fashion
45. John Lewis
46. Juritex
47. KappAhl
48. Karstadt
49. Kmart
50. Kik
51. LC WAIKIKI
52. Leclerc
53. Lidl
54. Loblaw
55. Mango
56. Marks and Spencer
57. Metro
More brands commit to the Accord on Fire & Building Safety in Bangladesh

We call upon all companies sourcing from Bangladesh to sign the Bangladesh Safety Accord. Find out more here.

Filed under: health & safety Bangladesh corporate accountability Safety Accord Rana Plaza