Executive Summary

Question: What are Canadian labor laws as they relate to leave administration, specifically military, disability, FMLA, vacation and bereavement? How do these laws in Alberta, Ontario and Quebec differ from U.S. laws?

There are a myriad of difference between labor laws in the United States and Canada, which are regulated by the provincial governments. We focused on the three provinces identified (Québec, Ontario and Alberta), and created a comparison with the United States’ federal laws. Key differences and highlights of the regulations pertaining to paid and unpaid leave practices are outlined in the table below.
