Glittering Tribute Paid To A Gallant Leader

"FOR COURAGE AND VISION IN SOCIAL MATTERS"

By GOVERNOR HERBERT H. LEHMAN

State of New York

Albany

My dear Mr. Daniel:

I understand that you are publishing a special Roosevelt campaign issue this week.

I am heartily supporting President Roosevelt for re-election, for two reasons: First, because during the years I was associated with him in public work I formed an extremely high opinion of his ability, efficiency, vigor and broad-mindedness; and secondly, because I think he is more than any other man of our generation has displayed courage and vision in social matters. To lose his leadership at this time would be nothing short of a calamity.

Yours very sincerely,

HERBERT H. LEHMAN

"...Sidney Hillman was never a Communist nor even a formally enrolled member of the Socialist Party. It is authoritative to report that he voted for La Follette in 1924, for Smith in 1928, and for Roosevelt in 1932. David Dubinsky resigned from the Socialist Party last April. Far from having communist sympathies, he has consistently fought Communism in the labor union of which he is the head."

The issues of this campaign are, as I see it, the Republic-Staff. They have to do with the policy of the Federal Government toward the workers in industry and agriculture—the development of our foreign trade, the development and use of natural resources on the public domain, the control of the great monopolies in oil, steel, electrical power and war munitions. The masters of these industries, whether with or without exception, are throwing the weight of their money and influence behind the candidacy of Governor Landon. But our common citizenship is aroused, and must assert itself at the polls and Roosevelt and his party and the new administration will triumph.

Would you like to take the floor in union meeting?

To read between the lines in the news?

To know how we got this way?

To help improve things?

ILGWU Throng in Roosevelt Chicago Parade

Chicago Joint Board Big Factor in Non-Partisan League

By Morris Ball, V.P.

In response to a call to "meet and greet President Roosevelt," on his visit to Chicago, 5,000 members of the locals affiliated with the International Ladies' Garment Workers poured out of their factories and homes to join the huge parade-demonstration on October 14 at which the great metropolis of the Midwest acclaimed the Chief Executive of the nation.

5,000 Clasemakers and Dreamers Turned Out To Form Part of Epoch-Making Parade Which Greeted President Roosevelt When He Visited Chicago on October 14. In Van of ILGWU Parades Were Vice-President Morris Ball and Secretary N. A. Goldstein Seen at Inset on Left.

I have found our members actively interested in the Roosevelt campaign.

Tugwell and Dubinsky are "Communists" - that is, they believe they can put over the idea that anyone who stands for a New Deal for labor is a Communist. Everyone who wants more opportunities for the workers and their children, those who build, create and make up the backbone of the nation, are all "Communists." Dubinsky is in particular a "Communist" because his name ends in 'sky' and they believe that this is good enough evidence for the American public to prove that he is a Communist.

"Twenty years ago when I was working in a shop as a cutter and earned a $1 salary, my employer called me a Bolshevik."

Then he quoted former Governor Smith as saying in the 1932 campaign that "every forward-looking, progressive legislation was called State Socialism" by the reactionaries of the Republican Party.

"Smith said that then," Dubinsky commented, "and it's just as true now. Way after this campaign is over, when Landon and Hamilton will have been forgotten, our Union and its service to the people will stand out as a Monument for Justice, Freedom and Democracy."

Chairman George L. Berry, chairman of the Labor's Non-Partisan League for the Re-election of Roosevelt, declared when introduced: "It was a delight to be associated with David Dubinsky and Sidney Hillman in this campaign because they have represented that kind of Americanism that I approve and embrace without reservation."

Roosevelt Victory Only First Aim

Explaning the reason for the formation of Labor's Non-Partisan League, Major Berry asserted the "first plank of the League's platform is the 1932 objectives to re-elect Roosevelt. We have given the people a New Deal and fulfillment of the 1934 objectives."

"Second, we decided to insert a plank for the protection of liberal-ism in the United States and it conveyed an assurance to the people in cooperation with Roosevelt in fulfillment of his last term in of Berry at a Roosevelt rally.

The ILGWU audience was only interested half the number of the unionists that paraded to the stadium from the Baltimore City Hall Plaza. On the platform besides Dubinsky and Berry were Angela Barbarce, Baltimore organizer of the ILGWU; Dorothy Dabney, of the A.C.W., and John T. Jones, district president of the United Mine Workers.

President Dubinsky lost no time in calling into Governor Landon's campaign manager, John Hamilton, who several weeks ago raised the "Communist" hoo-ha with regard to the designation of the President as a "Communist" when Hamilton had "sunk," said about my "communism" in the last ten days. He realizes that Dubinsky and himself may have more than their own votes. Hamilton, obviously, has received definite orders not to mention some of the things he said. He has done enough harm to the Republican cause already.

Every ALP Vote Must Be Counted!

By MAX D. DANISH

The "Great Red Scare" of the '38 campaign by all the signs of the horsepower is as good as a wholesome sandwich.

Hamilton, Ohio, and the entire collection of letters that had appeared for weeks to direct the Roosevelt campaign with a "Communist" crossing. They had tried to fill the "red tag" upon the President by associating him with such "Moscow agents" as Tugwell, Frankfurter, and—save the mark!—Dubinsky and Hillman. The ground was all but cleared for another "Exquisite Letter," the ill-smelling trick the Tory forces has pulled to the British elections of 1931, which scared the English voters back into abandoning the Labor Party that year.

Somehow, the problem didn't take. The cleared and vigorous design caught up with us. The Republican high command, a comment had heard from the hinterland that the "red tag" wasn't what it cracked up to be. So they buried the ugly thing and put a mask on it, to avoid its tender, like this.

No sooner, however, was the "red scare" out of sight than the Labor leaders decided to act on any scrap of a scarecrow.

For the past week, the "Sun" and the "Herald-Tribune" Labor chief-cries in the Eastern metropolis, have been printing articles on "discovery" that the American Labor Party is not...er...adjacent to the Democratic party. To that it has come to say that it was going to pull a million votes in the election, and just going to supplement Tammany Hall in the party in New York City within a more couple of years.

The London press of a number has been playing up the American Labor Party as a "menace" to Tammany Hall. In color and long "news" stories it has strained the point that the real Labor...er...party with the assurance of being fashioned right in the Tammany's mold, which will sound Tammany's own views as one of the "Cleveland" schools which think in the bad and save themselves.

But why, this sudden interest of Tammany Hall, supposedly their traditional enemy, shown by the "Herald-Tribune," which until now have given the American Labor Party no more than a dozen down Punchbowl, suddenly, a few are still, be gun to "pull" the Labor Party and to send down Tammany's back.

The answer is simple.

The Republican political, upon a closer check-up, have concluded that New York is practically lost for London. Moreover, they appear to have become equally convinced that it is the American Labor Party ticket that will swing the State into the Roosevelt camp. But the rise of a strong Labor Party, is ever more alarming to the Republican master-minds than to a Roosevelt victory in New York State. The advent of a powerful political organization, controlled and guided by the trade unions and the progressive and liberal forces in the nation's metropolis, the Leagues, etc., which will spread their name, will spread eager enthusiasm from coast to coast. And what does that mean. No more and no less than a "friendly suggestion" to "forbear" to credit the American Labor Party with the votes that will be cast under its emblem and to shift that vote peacefully and "harmlessly" to the regular Democratic balance.

That's the obvious content of the new movement, now seen in New York and it's still more obvious and desperately important.

The countercheck in this minor party move by the American Labor Party can be hot and hard. There must be mobilized at once an army of poll watchers on Election Day that would see to it that the votes cast for Roosevelt and Lehman under the Labor Party's emblem are counted for it. Twelve thousand watchers, we are told, are needed for adequate covering of the voting booths. This and should be done. Not a thing should be left to chance.

Half of Election Day, next Tuesday, November 3, is a legal holiday for all dressmakers in accordance with our agreement. This half holiday will begin at 12:30 P.M. All workers must be paid for the full day. The Joint Board informs the membership that no work will be permitted in the shops after 12:30 P.M. on Election Day. This Election Day will go down in political history.

The first time we are privileged to vote under the banner of our own party—the American Labor Party. Composed of the organized workers of the City and State allied with all liberal and progressive elements, it is our permanent instrument for independent political action.

The American Labor Party is dedicated to the defense of our freedom against reaction, to economic democracy as against exploitation and oppression, to the security and happiness of the broad masses of the people as against organized greed and special privilege.

Our Party supports President Roosevelt and Governor Lehman for re-election.

We support Roosevelt and Lehman because they need our strength and backing to press forward their economic, social security and humanitarian program of government. But we support them under our own banner and in our own column on the ballot because we want our united strength to stand as a challenge to the anti-labor, anti-social forces of reaction this year, next year and in the years to come.

The real issues in this campaign are simple.

Next Tuesday we will decide whether to continue the policies of Roosevelt and Lehman or hand the government back to the organized forces of greed and privilege.

We choose the new social consciousness in government based on social and labor legislation, bigger purchasing power of the workers of the State and Nation and a decent regard for the rights of the common man. We will not be thrown back to the misery and agony of Hooverism.

We do not forget the sweatshops, long hours and low pay. We will not be forced back to the dark days of breadlines, soup kitchens, bank failures and hopeless unemployment. We do not forget the mounting lists of those who took their own lives because the government would not help them live. We do not forget the boys and girls who lost their homes in the numbers. We do not forget the apple salesmen. We do not forget how the government was deaf to the hunger calls of women and children while displaying a tender interest in the needs of vested monopoly and banked finance.

We remember—and because we remember we are going to keep those who were responsible from getting another stranglehold on the National and State administrations.

The new philosophy in government has charted out a course for national recovery based on the vital needs of all the people rather than the claims of the privileged few. Increased purchasing power in the homes of the millions—to speed up the wheels of industry—reduction of hours to solve the problem of unemployment—fuller organization of workers into unions—stronger encouragement of collective bargaining—these are the things that have already happened.

With the American Labor Party we will go further.

All who work for a living need a permanent political party to insure an unbroken advance toward a richer, fuller, happier life.

State Chief Executive Advocates Amendment to Protect Minimum Wage Standards—Mrs. Roosevelt Sends Warm Letter—Dubinsky Extolls Democratic Regimes

By a Staff Reporter

Recast and preserved as it was followed in the early years of its existence, the Italian Dressmakers' Union, Local 89, observed Columbus Day this year, on October 12, with a celebration at the big Hippodrome on West 43rd Street. The huge theater, filled to capacity by an enthusiastic crew of 6,000 members of the local, presented an imposing and eye-filling spectacle for which the Italian dressmakers of New York have become renowned.

First Vice-President Luigi Antonini, as head of Local 89, presided over the speaking part of the program. He first recounted, in Italian, the salient points of Christopher Columbus' life and the struggles he faced prior and during his historic voyage to the Americas. He ended his talk by way of the unknown eastern continent which resulted in the discovery of America. Then, continuing in English, he explained why the Italian dressmakers have felt it their duty to observe the anniversary of the Great Discoverer.

"We are prompted to do so," said Antonini, "not by feelings of national nationalism but because it is a reminder of the sentiment of deep gratitude which is stirring the hearts of all who inhabit this Continent."

Mrs. Roosevelt Sends Greetings

Unable to accept the invitation to be present at the celebration, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, for whom the Italian dressmakers have special admiration, sent the following message, which was read to the assembled audience:

"My dear Mr. Antonini:

"I am glad to have this opportunity to send greetings to the members of the Italian Dressmakers' Union, Local 89, at their Columbus Day celebration. I am sorry that other engagements prevented my being with you but I do wish to send my best wishes to you all on this pleasant and memorable occasion."

Geo. Lehman

Mrs. Augustine

Governor Herbert H. Lehman, as moderator of the program, Charles Polletti, who read a technologically oriented address, as he came upon the platform, the Governor paid a glowing tribute to the contributions of the area and daughters of Italy to the progress of America, adding that in this land discovered by the Great Columbus there should never be a place for governmental policy based on the exploitation of or discrimination against minorities.

Dubinsky Hails Democracy

The address of President Dubinsky was a stirring plea for the preservation of democratic liberties in America and a tribute to those who attempt to inject in this present political campaign race or religious prejudices. He commented Local 89 for the devotion to these principles and for the part it is playing in making America secure for the great mass of people.

Following the speaking program, the Hippodrome Opera Company, conducted by President Diliborsi's "Harbor City" orchestra, gave a concert in three acts which was rendered superbly by the cast including Nisa Qureshi, Agaton Pilut, Lawrence Power, Mildred Ippolito, Enzo Ocello, and others.

UNION ASKS CONFERENCE TO PLAN RECOVERY BOARD

Harry cotton, impartial chairman of the dress industry, is asked to call a conference of all factors in the industry to plan for a recovery board, for general control of fair trade practices, in a letter from General Manager Julius Hochman, dated October 12.

In his letter, Mr. Hochman points out that although certain of the employer associations have been complaining bitterly about the unfair trade practices, the industry has been trying to work with the government to prevent the explosion of unfair labor practices.

Sound Track in District

A trade union committee is arranged for a sound track over the garment district. The job speaker will make a special appeal to the young people for membership in the American Labor Party and an appeal to the older members. The committe, headed by President Roosevelt and Governor Lehman under the name of the LAB PARTY.

The committee is set up as a permanent board and will carry out its work after election as well as before. Looking ahead to 1932, its leaders declare that the youth division of the Party will be large enough and strong enough to demand and receive a decisive voice in the shaping of policy and the selection of candidates.

The enthusiasm of the young trade unionists for independent political action by labor as exemplified in the American Labor Party has been illustrated by the rapid growth of membership in the youth division. More new members are entering the party than are leaving, with the result that the active membership is constantly growing.

All Locals Represented

Representatives on the trade union committees from the locals of the Joint Board are: B. P. Kiernan, Local 50; H. M. Davis, Local 89; A. P. P. Alphonse, Local 69, and Joseph B. fernandez, Local 85.

The youth division of the American Labor Party was set up at a city-wide conference of 200 delegates from 63 labor, educational, social, and fraternal organizations held at the Hotel Claridge on October 9.

The delegates adopted resolutions endorsing President Roosevelt and Governor Lehman for re-election, endorsing the program of the American Labor Party, and setting up a youth division of the Labor Party as a permanent organization.

They set up a temporary executive committee of 20 to direct and coordinate the campaign work. More than the city committee has been established for committees to carry out work in the trade unions and in the garment district, the suburbs, and to arrange for radio talks.

The Issue Before Us

By DAVID DUBINSKY

The issue in the current presidential campaign is definite and clear-cut.

Despite pretenses to "liberalism" which he makes in his speeches in some parts of the country, A. F. L. Landen is definitely the candidate of all forces of retrogression in American life.

If a man is known by the company he keeps and a party is known by the supporters it gets, it is self-evident that the party which has the support of the DuPonts, the Morgans, the Rockefellers, of William Randolph Hearst, of Andrew Mellon, is by this fact the party of these monopolists and beneficiaries of privilege.

Roosevelt, on the opposite side, has proved by his record as Governor of New York and as President of the United States that the workers and common people of America can depend on him as a true friend of progress and labor.

Roosevelt and Landen are poles apart. Landen is the candidate of Hoover, Ford, the Steel Trust, the non-union dukes in the mass-production industries, the munition makers and the war makers.

ON NOVEMBER 3, THE MEMBERS OF THE ILGWU IN COMMON WITH ALL OTHER MEN AND WOMEN IN AMERICA WHO WORK FOR A LIVING, WILL DEMONSTRATE THIS INTELLECTUAL UNDERSTANDING OF THE TRUE ISSUE FACING THEM IN THIS GREAT POLITICAL CAMPAIGN BY VOTING FOR FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT - AND IN NEW YORK STATE ALSO FOR GOVERNOR HERBERT H. LEHMAN, BY THE GREATEST MAJORITY EVEN GIVEN A PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Watchers, A L P Builders, Wanted!

A CALL TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE ILGWU IN GREATER NEW YORK!

Within a week, the forces of labor and progress which have allied themselves this year in New York to build a Labor Party in order to make safe the re-election of Roosevelt and Lehman, to insure an organized political defense of economic freedom and democracy for years to come, we hope, will have occasion to look with pride upon their first year's achievement.

But there is still a lot to be done, a great many obstacles to overcome. The message of the American Labor Party, in the form of campaign literature, attendance at meetings and rallies, distribution of posters, etc., must still reach hundreds of thousands of people in this great metropolis. Thousands of watchers are needed for Election Day so that every vote we get through hard work and勒曼 will be credited to the Labor Party.

Members of all Builders' Locals in NEW YORK as City Campaign Committee Chairman of the A.L. P. call upon you to volunteer for this work without delay. Get at once in touch with your local office and apply to the Local Campaign Committee for an assignment, or contact directly with the main headquarters, at Hotel Claridge—46th Street and Broadway—Telephone Bryant 8-5140— and you will be directed to your proper locality.

Bear in mind, we must leave nothing to chance in this campaign. Your help is needed in this political struggle as in the economic conflict our labor has so successfully carried out in past years.

REMEMBER—There is no time left for delay. Every day, every hour counts. Let's get a magnificent Post to the picture job we have set out to achieve!

A Protest on Nov. 3rd

By LUIGI ANTONINI

The number of registered voters this year has surpassed every estimate. In the city of New York alone the increase has been over half a million. Republicans assert that this increase shows a desire on the part of the people to protest, I agree. There will be a protest, solemn and irresistible: but it will be quite different from the protest the Republicans are dreaming about.

It will be the protest of the people, of the young and old people, of the unemployed, all of whom have been helped by Roosevelt with his program of social legislation and economic security, against the return of those years when prosperity was "always around the corner."

It will be the protest of all American working people asserting, with Roosevelt, the right to organize, to bargain collectively for better wages and more decent working conditions.

It will be the protest of a free people against those who are trying to divide this nation by race prejudice and religious intolerance.

I KNOW THAT THE MEN AND WOMEN OF LOCAL 35 ARE ANXIOUSLY AWAITING THE 3RD OF NOVEMBER. FOR ON THAT DAY, TOGETHER WITH THE WORKERS OF AMERICA, THEY WILL RE- ELECT ROOSEVELT. WILL DEFEAT REACTION. AND WILL THEN PAVE THE WAY FOR A BETTER TOMORROW FOR ALL THE PEOPLE.

The Campaign in Westchester Co.

By Louis Reif
Westchester Industrial Union Manager

The opening gun to the American Labor party on the soil in Westchester County was fired Thursday afternoon, October 5, when two thousand workers, members of Local 141, met in the auditorium of the Westchester Women's Club, Croton Avenue, Mamaroneck.

A well-chosen group of speakers addressed the assembly of wage earners and small workers addressed the audience.

The meeting was conducted by the local's president, Mrs. Louise Reif, of Homestead, New York.

"Let me now speak," Reif concluded, "What we are fighting for is the right to a decent wage, the right to organize, the right to speak, the right to a voice in the management of the plants."

Our Union Campaigning For Roosevelt In Southwest

By Mayor Perlshtein
ILGWU Representative In Southwest

Our unions everywhere are busy with the campaign...In St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas, Houston, the Twin Cities, Alton, and wherever union ladies' garment shops are located, our people are full of enthusiasm, working with other labor unions, agitating for the re-election of President Roosevelt.

In St. Louis, the Central Labor Union organized a Non-Partisan League. The committee is under the able leadership of T. F. Queen, executive agent of the Illinois Federation, one of the outstanding intelligent union men of that city; Joseph Clark, chairman of the Central Labor Union, Wm. M. Hurd, secretary of the Central Labor Union, and Mrs. Mary Nylander.

Indeed, the ILGWU as well as the Amalgamated Clothing Workers is, conspicuously active in the move.

Christine Cain, Secretary, Missouri Labor's Women's Labor League

Moses Safi
For Roosevelt

Our members in St. Louis and their friends are almost as a unit going to vote for President Roosevelt.

In Kansas City the organization is under the leadership of Sister Hower, and in St. Louis the local is under the presidency of Mrs. J. A. Lee. In every city the local is very active.

In the Twin Cities our members and their friends are enthusiastic supporters of the Farmer-Labor Party. Our own unions in radio cities and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers are busy day in and day out installing, talking of the election. I can very well imagine the huge majority Roosevelt will receive in Minnesota.

In Houston, Texas, a group of our members last Friday attended a rally dinner given in honor of President Roosevelt. Each shop had its own group and although the majority at the dinner were women of every walk of life, the trade unionists were very conspicuous, and particularly the garment workers, members of our International—laborers, the most progressive and liberal of the country that will re-elect Roosevelt. The large audience present, the rich, will vote against him.

In the Hall, Donnelly factory in Kansas City, every executive was conscientiously wearing a shawl with Landau's picture. In all the non-union factories in Missouri, the workers strike-breaking agency is active, the employers are using their influence with the whores to vote for Landau.

In Queens and Staten Island

Brother Jack Greenspan, manager of the ILGWU Long Island, is actively engaged in promoting the campaign in his territory. The workers at the Mayfair, Mary Dress, and Amelia Dress shops of Hicksville, Nassau County, met in the Christian Hall to complete arrangements for campaign activities. Past watchers were appointed and assignments for campaigning were made.

A similar meeting was held on October 6 in Columbia Hall, Huntington, Suffolk County, and the same arrangements were made with the 10 people from the Brooklyn shop.

At Corona, Queens, two meetings were held with the workers from the Frank, Regis, Roney and Albert shops in Corona. At the Queen Street Hall, over 300 people pleaded their votes for Roosevelt and to an active campaign on the behalf of Greenblatt has announced Charles Cleon, the leader of the Long Island office of the American Labor Party, where he is cooperating with Mr. Sady, local chairman of the American Labor Party. A meeting of 200 people was held Wednesday morning, October 21, at Barre Hall. Among those attending the meeting were B. M. Malin, Italian forewoman of chairmen of the ALP, and Sister Margaret Deligan.

ALP Caravan In ILGWU Territory

The caravan of the Women's Division of the American Labor Party, led by Marie H. McDonald, has been making a very successful tour of New York State. The marchers on October 10, they held five successful meetings in the five major towns of the state. In the town of Rochester, 500 people stood in a pouring rain to hear Mrs. McDonald speak. Later, the caravan traveled to Utica and thence to Clifton where Pop Smith of the United Mine Workers joined Mrs. McDonald in appealing for support of President Roosevelt.

2,000 CUTTERS WANTED FOR WATCHER DUTY ON NOV. 3

To All Members of Local 10—Cutters in Every Branch of the Women's Garment Industry

On November 3, the electorate of America will decide the fate of the country for the next four years. That decision, however, will have more than mere political significance.

It will decide whether the wage earners of America in every trade, profession and occupation, whatever the common people of this country are to look forward to progress, further recovery and a place in the sun of our social and economic future, where we shall return again to Roosevelt and all the misery and degradation that tragic term stands for.

Members of Local 10! We call upon you to go to the polls on November 3 and help return to their exalted pasts President Roosevelt and Governor Lehman, the two great leaders for human progress and social justice. Vote for them—and this is tremendously important—under the banner of the American Labor Party, the Headlamp under the Cogwheel. We must not only re-elect Roosevelt and Lehman; we must build up in this campaign a strong labor party controlled and guided by the organized workers.

BUT IT IS NOT ENOUGH TO CAST A VOTE—WE MUST SEE TO IT THAT OUR VOTES ARE COUNTED FOR THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY. I CALL UPON YOU, THEREFORE, TO ENLIST, AS MEMBERS OF LOCAL 10, IN THE BIG ARMY OF WATCHERS FOR ELECTION DAY. IT IS EXPECTED THAT LOCAL 10 WILL FURNISH NOT LESS THAN 200 WATCHERS FOR NOVEMBER 3.

EVERY MAN IS NEEDED FOR THIS BIG TASK AND NO TRUE FRIEND OF OUR COMMON CAUSE SHOULD SHirk THIS DUTY—REPORT TO THE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE OF LOCAL 10 AT ONCE AT HEADQUARTERS AND GET YOUR INSTRUCTIONS AND ASSIGNMENTS.

LET EVERY MAN FACE HIS TASK SQUARELY!

Fraternally,

Boston ILGWU Girls Present Flowers to Roosevelt

Local Unions Emphasize Need of Getting Out Vote—Shop Meetings Popularize Campaign—Garment Workers Among Hugest Throngs of Roosevelt-Greaters.

The entire labor movement of Boston has set its machinery in high speed for the final winding campaign to elect President Roosevelt.

With the Boston ILGWU in the vanguard of the movement, as reported by the "Justice," a monumental Labor Day rally was held on October 31 at Tremont Temple, at which David Dubinsky and Sidney Hillman were the main speakers. Literature thousands were turned away from the meeting while hundreds lined the surrounding streets listening to the speakers through amplifiers.

With this rally as the touchstone, an intensive campaign has been launched in all local offices of the International in Boston, through the Boston Labor Board with Vice-President Philip Kroner heading the campaign, and through the Organization Department with Brother Jack Halpern as leading spirit.

Campaign Work At Forefront

At all local Daughters meetings emphasis has been placed on the need for members to vote on November 3. At all shop meetings the question of whether a vote has been cast is now in the forefront.

The climax of all labor's activities in the campaign campaign was on Wednesday, October 31, with the President's visit to Boston, where thousands of laborers from the New England States.

Roosevelt has yet to see a more enthusiastic, more sincere, and a more generous group of laborers than the Boston women. With the rally scheduled for four o'clock in the afternoon, thousands of women began to assemble early in the morning at the Parkman Bandstand at the Boston Common to await the arrival of the President.

The President was not an assembly of dignitaries, or of State officials alone; President Roosevelt entered the warm welcome and cheering greetings of the workers of Boston, from the masses of the people to whom he has come more clear than ever, and who know that there is no choice to make in this campaign—between progress or reaction, democracy or fascism.

ALP Looks Out On "Great White Way"

Sally Pingee, Brookline, Mass., ILGWU Girl Starter, Who Vindicated the President a Bancroft of State As He Passed Through Shoe Town.
"MARS OVER THE WHITE HOUSE"

Suppose William Randolph Hearst were President of the United States and a du Pont was Secretary of State.

What would you give for our chances of staying at peace with the world if Suppose Hearst, America's chief war-monger, determined our foreign policy, and the du Ponts, our greatest munition makers, put that policy into effect.

How long before we would be in trouble—with the Hearst papers yelling "War!" and the du Pont mills grinding powder overtime?

What does it mean that Hearst and the du Ponts are the chief supporters of Alfred Mowman Landon, the man nobody had ever heard of until Hearst picked him out?

Thank God, the American people are too keen ever to have a Hearst for President, a du Pont for Secretary of State. But how much better off, if any, will they be with the hand-picked candidate of Hearst and the du Ponts?

We get an odd feeling at the thought of an American President in office with Hearst at one hand, the du Ponts at the other.

The next four years are make-or-break years in interna tional affairs.

Let's keep the du Ponts out of the White House during the dangerous years ahead.

We mustn't let our foreign policy to the family that made a profit of $225,000,000 during the last war.

In three years Roosevelt has forged new weapons for peace—neutrality legislation, reciprocal trade treaties, his Good Neighbor policy. The Republican Party, ostensibly, never mentions neutrality legislation in its platforms. It promises specifically to repeal the reciprocal trade treaties.

"You supply the pictures, I'll supply the war," Hearst cabled Remington, his artist in Cuba, before the Spanish-American War. He supplied it. He could do it again.

A vote for Landon is a vote for this irresponsible war-monger and his powder-maker ally.

A vote for Roosevelt is a vote to keep Hearst and the du Ponts out of the White House.
Down the Home Stretch
By J. C. Rich

A Thrilling Race With the Favorite Winning—The Stable Boy on Mr. Hearth's Entry—who's Been Doping the Nags—A Case for the S.F.C.A.

With the decision race turning down the home stretch and the favorite in the lead, we believe we have just time enough to stop for a moment to describe some of the contenders, their trainers, jockeys, owners and the color which they run. First of all, however, the attraction of the judges should be called to some highly suspicious work done in one of the stables. One of the nags seems to have been doped and the jockey is riding him too hard. If the judges won't interfere perhaps the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will.

It was a nice clean field that the Sunflower Stakes had entered in the race. No one knew much about it except that it was named Long. Certainly enough, that is an easy name of a schooling platter that had been placed in some obscure field out in Kansas. Maybe it's the same now, but if so, the judges should investigate to find out what this graduate from the horses and barn is doing in the track with a blundered thoroughbred. Certainly he could not have trained up under his own stables. Whatever it was that they put in his feed ought to be jumped.

The Stable Boy's Manners

The record shows William Randall, stablehand for owner and trainer and one John D. Hamilton as jockey. No one knows much about the boy and if he started as stable boy in one of the less reputable outfits. He showed a particular fondness for the Hearst entry, maybe because he was as dark and easily managed as a horse. It is true also that with a little gloss and sticking the entry could be made to run a good race, and the stable boy was a good hand at that sort of guessing. He was, therefore, promoted to jockey, we are told, and was given a fine hand with the map. The proprietor seems to have gone to the boy's head and he has no consideration for his stead or even for the ordinary rules of the sport. The spectators have been hushing and protesting about the dirty driving, but to no avail.

The stable boy has his orders and his own overwhelming ambition to consider. He could, therefore, not do any serious work. His horse, none other but he had demonstrated any capacity to play fair with the other contenders in the race and has to crowd them to the red. All this was the manner and distaste the drivers with a blue streak of backcloth insulted on the manner. The stable boy was given a jockey's collar and he was seen fuming at the face. Yet he was very thick with black and red as his fancy moves him. For the present they are definitely black.

No one will deny Mr. Hearst's entry a victory in the stable. Yet, there is not one thing in the stable from the color of the horse, the name of the stable or the manner in which he is handled. This stable is one of the most famous stables in the country. It is true that in 1954, 1949, and 1949, the stable was not as successful as the one on the inside. The results have been most discouraging, however, and are just as much as they are now. It is quite certain that he will return the next time.
Our Union Campaigning For Roosevelt In Southwest

Our unions everywhere begin the campaign.

In St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas, Houston, the Twin Cities, Alton, and wherever union ladies' garment shops are located our people are full of enthusiasm, working with other labor unions, agitating for the re-election of President Roosevelt.

In St. Louis the Central Labor Union organized a Non-Partisan League. The committee is under the able leadership of T. F. Similarly, the ILGWU, as well as the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, is conscientiously active in the movement.

Each shop had its own group and although the majority at the dinner were women of every walk of life, the trade unionists were very conspicuous, and particularly the garment workers, members of our International—these were the biggest group of any organization at the dinner tables. Everybody in Houston will notice our people, for their bravery to the cause of Roosevelt, a true socialist in the White House.

The Common People For F. D. R.

While on frills and fumes in traversing I have heard a lot during the last few months. Every where one sees the mood that the organized workers, and most conspicuous among them the garment workers and the miners, are working unceasingly, agitating, exploiting the true idea of division between the laboring people, the men and women of average means, and the rich men, the large employers. It is the labor people, the men of average means, those prosperous and liberals of the country that will re-elect Roosevelt. The large employers, the rich, will vote against him.

In the Hall Donnelly factory in Kansas City, every executive is consecutively wearing a sunflower with Landau's picture. In all the non-union factories in Missouri, where the Amher strike-breaking agency is active, the employers are using their influence with the wishes to vote for Landau.

In Queens and Staten Island

Brother Jack Grossman, manager of the ILGWU in Long Island, is actively engaged in promoting the campaign in his territory. The workers of the Mayde, May Dray and Amelia Drye shops of Hicksville and Nassau County, west of the Christian Hall to complete arrangements for campaign activities. Post watchers were appointed and assignments for campaigning were made.

A similar meeting was held on October 6 in Columbus Hall, Huntington, Suffolk County, and the same arrangements were made with the 10 people from the tailors' shop.

At Corona, Queens, two meetings were held with the workers from the Frank, Rubin and Alter shops in Corona. At the Queen Street Hall, over 200 people pledged their votes to Roosevelt and in an active campaign on the behalf of the Grossman has enabled Charles Clancy of the Queens Street office of the American Labor Party, where he is co-operating with Mr. Addis, local chairman of the American Labor Party. Shephard, chairman of the American Labor Party, made a meet of 200 people on Wednesday afternoon, October 21, at the Battery Hall. The Time to Act Has Come

Your Union has for the past several months advocated the re-election of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. In New York State it has come out just as strongly for the re-election of Governor Herbert H. Lehman.

In every State where we have organizations, we have urged our locals and joint boards to affiliate and to work with the Labor's Non-Partisan League for the Re-election of Roosevelt. In New York State, we have helped to form the American Labor Party and are taking a big part in the remarkable campaign which this Party is conducting to make New York safe for Roosevelt and Lehman.

This political activity on the part of our International is a voluntary, genuine expression of the will of the mass of our membership. We cannot recall a movement in our ranks which was more spontaneous, more heartily welcomed, more uniform in every part and section of the organization, than this mighty upsurge on the part of the membership to work for the re-election of President Roosevelt.

We support, together with all of organized labor of America, President Roosevelt because we recognize in him a true champion of the people. We support Roosevelt, and in New York State also Governor Lehman, because they have taken the Government away from the tragedy of Hooverism and charted out a course for national recovery.

Shall we proceed along the road of returning prosperity based on social and labor legislation and bigger purchasing power for the workers? Shall we throw our support to those who have a decent regard for the rights of the common people?

Or shall we be forced back to the dark days of the sweatshop, of breadlines, of soup kitchens, hunger marches and hopeless unemployment with the Government displaying a tender interest only in vested monopoly, organized greed and frenzied finance?

To these stirring questions we, members of the ILGWU, have but one answer: We must mobilize our strength, as voters, this year, with the same earnestness, the same loyalty, the same devotion that we apply in our daily struggle for better economic conditions as trade unionists, to the common fight of freedom as against reaction, for economic democracy as against exploitation and oppression, for the security and happiness of the broad masses of the population—against organized greed and special privilege.

Members of the ILGWU! Let us march to the polls on Tuesday, November 3, in solid ranks to vote for Roosevelt, and if you live in New York, for Roosevelt and Lehman under the banner of the American Labor Party. Let us remember that all who work for a living need a permanent political party formed by organized labor allied with progressive and liberal elements to insure an unbroken advance toward better living.

Let us prevent the despoilers of our national life, the sharks of industry and finance, from regaining their stronghold on the Federal and State administrations!

VOTE FOR FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT FOR PRESIDENT: MAKE SURE THAT EVERY MEMBER OF YOUR FAMILY DOES LIKewise.

LET US CHECK REACTION BEFORE IT GETS A CHANCE TO WRECK OUR HOPES FOR A BETTER AND HAPPIER LIFE!
