ARTICLE I

RECOGNITION

Section 1 - The Employer recognizes the North Bellmore Public Library Staff Association (hereinafter "Association"), as the exclusive representative for all full-time employees and part-time Librarian employees having completed a minimum of six (6) months continuous service, for purposes of collective bargaining with respect to pay and other conditions of employment, except for the positions of Director, Assistant Director, Business Manager, Secretaries and/or Administrative Assistants assigned to the Director and Assistant Director, and Security Guards, Pages, and those in positions classified as administrative or confidential, substitute, seasonal, or temporary.

Section 2 - The Association is entitled to exclusive recognition pursuant to the Rules and Regulations of the State of New York Public Employment Relations Board, and the Association shall be entitled to unchallenged representation until June 30, 2004 and thereafter, unless another employee organization is certified to represent the employees under the procedures of the Public Employees Fair Employment Act or such other statute as may be applicable.

Section 3 - IT IS AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES THAT ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT REQUIRING LEGISLATIVE ACTION TO PERMIT ITS IMPLEMENTATION BY AMENDMENT OF LAW OR BY PROVIDING THE ADDITIONAL FUNDS THEREFORE, SHALL NOT BECOME EFFECTIVE UNTIL THE APPROPRIATE LEGISLATIVE BODY HAS GIVEN APPROVAL.

ARTICLE II

EDUCATION LAW SECTION 913:

Employer may require an examination, at Board cost, of an employee on sick leave or disability, or of an employee who the Board has reason to suspect may be unfit or incapable of performing his/her job duties by a Library designated physician, in order to determine the physical and/or psychological capacity of such person to perform his/her duties. An employee directed to undertake such an examination shall have the right to be accompanied by his own physician or other person he/she desires.

For purposes of this paragraph, the provisions of Section 913 of the Education Law are made applicable to Employer directed examinations of employees; which provisions and the judicial interpretation thereof shall govern.

Articles III

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES:

Section 1 - DEFINITIONS:

1. WORKING DAYS - Defined as Monday - Friday, for purposes of this Article only.

2. GRIEVANCE - Any claimed violation of this Agreement. The term "grievance" shall not include any matter involving a member's retirement benefits, disciplinary proceedings, or any matter which is otherwise reviewable pursuant to law or any rule or regulation having the force and effect of law. A grievance shall be deemed waived unless presented in full within thirty (30) days after the event on which the grievance is based, is known, or should have been known by the Grievant, or in the event the Grievant fails to proceed to the next ensuing stage of the Grievance procedures within a prescribed time period following a Supervisor’s, Director’s or Board’s determination. Library’s Personnel Policy Grievance provisions are deemed superceded by the provisions of this Article.

3. GRIEVANT -
Any employee covered by this Agreement who registers a claimed violation or misinterpretation of the provisions of this Agreement.

4. REPRESENTATIVE -
Shall mean the person or persons designated by the aggrieved employee as his/her counsel or to act on his/her behalf. A Grievant may have a member representative from the Association present during any or all stages of a grievance proceeding; however, the employee retains the right to determine whether such representative shall be present at any point in the proceedings.

5. CIVIL SERVICE LAW PROVISION -
A Staff Association representative may be present at an employees request at employer/employee conferences where employee’s conduct and/or job performance may possibly constitute misconduct or incompetence for purposes of Section 75 Civil Service Law.

Section 2 - PROCEDURES

1. INFORMAL STAGE -
The Grievant or his/her representative shall orally present grievances to the immediate Supervisor who will discuss the grievance with the Grievant or his/her representative, except that the presentation of the grievance shall not interfere with the normal operation of the Library. The immediate Supervisor shall make a decision within five (5) working days after the grievance has been presented. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at this stage, the Grievant or his/her representative may proceed to the Formal Stage.

2. FORMAL STAGE -
   a) Within five (5) working days after the decision of the immediate Supervisor, the Grievant or the Association may make a written request to the Director for the formal review including a factual description of the alleged grievance. The Director shall immediately notify the Grievant and any other employee and Supervisor previously involved in the case to submit written statements within five (5) working days presenting the facts of the case.

   b) A request for an informal hearing may be included in the written statement. The Director shall arrange for this informal hearing to be held within five (5) working days. All parties concerned shall attend and present oral and written statements supporting their positions in the case.

   c) The Director shall make a decision in writing within five (5) working days after the written statements are submitted (B-1), or within five (5) working days after the completion of the informal hearing (B-2), whichever is later.

3. BOARD STAGE -
   a) Within seven (7) working days of the preceding decision (2)(c) the Grievant or his/her representative may make a written request to the Board of Trustees for review.
b) The Board, or its designee, shall, within ten (10) working days of receiving the request (3)(a), schedule a hearing to be held within ten (10) working days. All concerned parties shall be notified as soon as the date is set. All may present verbal and written statements.

c) The Board shall make a final decision in writing within ten (10) working days of the hearing.

4. ADVISORY ARBITRATION -

Within ten (10) working days of the preceding decision of the Board of Trustees, the Grievant or his/her representative may make a written request to the Board of Trustees for Advisory Arbitration, to be conducted by an Arbitrator selected by mutual assent of the Board of Trustees and Union from the list annexed as “Schedule A”, and failing such mutual assent, by designation of the first such Arbitrator so listed able to conduct such Arbitration. The Arbitrator shall adhere to rules of evidence and substantive law as do the courts of the State of New York in the conduct of the Hearing and in rendering his/her Advisory Opinion. The expense of Arbitration shall be shared equally by the parties and the Arbitrator shall have authority to state an opinion and a remedy which shall be advisory on the parties. The Board of Trustees will thereafter modify or confirm its previous decision.

Article IV

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS:

Except as is otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to limit the Employer in the exercise of the regular and customary functions of management including, but not limited to, the right to hire, determine experience and background, supervise, evaluate and direct the working force; to discipline, place on close supervision, suspend or discharge for cause; to withhold salary increases in whole or in part based upon less than satisfactory job performance (following an evaluation indicating an employee’s less than satisfactory performance of duties); to transfer or lay off employees for lack of work; to determine the kind, character and class of work, and days and hours of operation; to take on work and acquire materials from any sources obtainable; to transfer employees to a position of the same title; and to determine the manner, location and place of work; scheduling and approval of leave; to establish standards of performance; to control the costs, methods and systems of operations and to conduct its business, all of the foregoing, in accordance with law.

Article VI

HOURS OF WORK:
The normal workweek for full-time employees shall be thirty-five (35) hours per week. Part-time employees shall be considered 17.5 or less hours. Overtime shall be paid after 80 hours of work per pay period.

Granting compensatory time, at straight pay rate, between 70 and 80 hours per pay period, with Supervisors prior approval as to overtime.

Employer reserves the right to assign and schedule employees to such hours and days as in its discretion is necessary to provide a proper balance and mix of experience, classifications and skills among employees during all days and hours of Library operations. If there are insufficient volunteers for Sundays and Holidays, the Director shall assign employees so as to maintain proper mix of different positions and experience.

Full-time Employees called back to work after they have completed their regularly scheduled hours of work shall be scheduled for a minimum of three (3) hours work at the rate of time and one half pay, or will receive compensation for three hours work at straight time rates if required to work less than three hours.

Full time Employees asked to report earlier to work than their regularly scheduled hours will be allowed to work a split shift; and if requested to continue to work beyond their usually assigned number of daily hours by more than three hours, will be provided time and one-half rate of pay for such additional hours of work, as well as an uncompensated dinner break period.

Employees shall have the option to receive pay or compensatory time on all Library trips extending beyond the employee's regularly scheduled hours.

Should the Library close by reason of weather conditions such as snow, hurricane or other days considered emergencies, all employees scheduled to work shall be paid their normal wages for that day.

Article VII

SENIORITY
Seniority shall be defined as length of continuous service in title, based on the original date of permanent appointment of any employee covered by this Agreement in accordance with the procedures established under the Civil Service Law and Rules for purposes of layoff and recall.

Article VIII

HEALTH INSURANCE
Library shall contribute towards health insurance premiums on behalf of eligible active employees in the Library's designated health insurance plan, as follows:

Effective July 1, 2003: 90% of Individual coverage premium costs and 75% of Family coverage premium costs

Library has the right to designate a health insurance carrier, following consultation with Staff Association, provided the successor health plan affords substantially equal or better benefits than the then does the current health plan.
Library’s payment of health insurance benefits for retirees is subject to Board discretion, and is subject to Board policy prescribing minimum eligibility requirements, including minimum numbers of years of required employment and the requirement that only those persons retiring from active employment with the Library into the NYS Employee Retirement System are eligible for health insurance in retirement.

Option To Decline Health Insurance Benefit:
Eligible employees covered under the Employer’s health insurance plan may waive inclusion in the Health Plan each year, in accordance with the procedures established by Employer, provided the Health Insurance Plan permits such waiver. A stipend of One Thousand-Five Hundred ($1,500.00) Dollars shall be paid to the employee who has voluntarily waived all coverage in the Health Plan in accordance with Library policy and procedures, payable at the conclusion of the one (1) year period of such waiver.

Article IX

PERSONNEL POLICIES:
The Board of Trustees shall not reduce the benefits provided to employees with regard to sick leave, annual leave, personal leave and holidays set forth in its personnel policy during the term of this Agreement except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement. However, Library’s Personnel Policies not superseded by the terms of this Agreement are subject to modification in the Board’s discretion, subject to the Union’s right to consultation as accorded under law.

Article X

LABOR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS:

Section 1 - As the need arises the Association may meet for purposes of discussing Association business in any available, appropriate room in the Library during non-working hours, upon reasonable advance notice and during reasonable hours, no more than once monthly. An Association representative must make an application for the use of the room.

Association’s use of Library meeting rooms will be permitted if not in conflict with the Board’s and the public’s use of the meeting room.

Section 2 - Bulletin Board:
The Association shall be granted the right to use a single bulletin board in the staff break room, for the use of Association communications to unit members. Nothing posted on such board shall be derogatory toward the Library, its employees, or its Trustees and all such postings shall be limited to legitimate Union business.

Section 3 - An Association representative may have reasonable access to discuss a particular labor problem with a staff member during the work day during an employee’s break period if circumstances are such that discussions of the particular labor problem cannot reasonably be delayed until after work hours; however, such access shall be limited and not interfere with the normal operation of the Library.

Section 4 - Time Off for Grievances:
If a Grievance proceeding is conducted during working hours, a designated representative of the Association shall be permitted to attend any Grievance proceeding during working hours.
Section 5 - The Employer will, once each year, furnish each bargaining unit employee with a statement of the employee’s benefits status including sick days, vacation days and salary.

Section 6 - The Employer agrees to provide one (1) copy of this Agreement for each bargaining unit employee.

DUES DEDUCTIONS

Section 1 - For the term of this Agreement, the BOARD shall deduct membership dues and premiums from the salaries of bargaining unit employees having voluntarily and individually executed authorizations for deduction of such membership dues from payroll. An employee may revoke a dues deduction authorization by submitting a written notice of revocation to the Board at least ten (10) days prior to the last payroll for which the revocation is to become effective. Dues shall be payable to the Staff Association, however, such dues may be assigned by Staff Association to its agent, United Public Service Employees Union, 3555 Veterans Highway, Suite H, Ronkonkoma, New York 11779.

Section 2 - The BOARD may deduct an agency shop fee from the salary of any employee in the bargaining unit who is not a member of the Staff Association, for so long as required under the laws of the State of New York, and such agency shop fees will be payable to the Staff Association; however, such fees may be assigned by Staff Association to its agent, United Public Service Employees Union, 3555 Veterans Highway, Suite H, Ronkonkoma, New York 11779.

DENTAL INSURANCE

All full-time employees shall be covered by the North Bellmore Public Library dental plan at an annual cost to Library, for individual Employee benefits. Employees selecting family coverage shall pay the premium difference between the family and individual coverage. In the event Individual coverage annual premiums exceed $500, the BOARD may designate a successor dental insurance carrier with premiums less than $500, provided the dental benefits are substantially similar to the benefits existing in the dental plan in effect as of January 1, 2002, and further provided that non-Association member employees of the Library are entitled to participate in such dental plan on an equal basis with Association member employees.

LIFE INSURANCE

Upon permanent appointment, the Library will pay one-half (½) the cost of insurance for coverage of the annual salary.

BEREAVEMENT

Each full-time employee shall be granted a maximum of five (5) days which cannot be accumulated, upon the date of the employees parents, grandparents, spouse, child, brother, sister, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, mother-in-law or father-in-law.

Each part-time employee shall be granted paid funeral leave commensurate with the number of hours an employee is scheduled to work in a normal work week. This time off is given upon the death of an employees parents, grandparents, spouse, child, brother, sister, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, mother-in-law or father-in-law.
ARTICLE XV

NO DISCRIMINATION

The Employer and the Association agree not to discriminate in any way against any Employee because of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, political affiliation, sex, age, or membership in the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE XVI

NO STRIKE CLAUSE

SECTION 1-
Employer and the Association recognize that strikes and other forms of work stoppage by public Employees are contrary to law and public policy. Both parties subscribe to the principle that differences shall be resolved by peaceful and appropriate means without interruption of the duties necessary to the normal operation of the Library. The Association therefore agrees that it will not authorize, cause, condone or permit its members to cause any strike or stoppage, or other interference with Library operations, nor will any member of the Association take part in a strike, stoppage or other interference with Library operations.

SECTION 2-
Both parties shall comply in all respects with the Taylor Law. Violation of this provision shall subject the parties and individuals to the penalties provided by law.

ARTICLE XVII

DOCTRINE OF SEVERABILITY

Should any provision of this Agreement or any supplement thereto be held invalid by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, or if compliance with or enforcement of any such provision should be restrained by a court, all other provisions of this Agreement and any supplement thereto shall remain in force.

ARTICLE XVIII

ANNUAL LEAVE

1. General Provisions:
A. Discretionary powers may be exercised by the Director for the good of the Library in granting vacations through the entire year. All annual leave is subject to Library scheduling.

B. Annual Leave is calculated on the basis of 35 work hours per week, is accrued on a monthly basis and must be used within twelve (12) months of earned. In the event an employee wishes to save part of that leave for the following fiscal year, the employee may apply to the Board for such permission, no later than 60 days prior to termination of fiscal year.

Policies:
a. No vacation shall be granted in advance of its being earned.
b. No vacation shall be granted until an employee has been employed a minimum of six months.
c. Those employed less than one year, but more than six months, may be granted vacation time on a pro-rated basis.
d. Only one staff member of each area of service may be on vacation at one time, unless an exception is granted by the Director.
2. Vacation Allowances - Full-Time Staff:

I. Fulltime Employees hired prior to July 1, 2004:

b. Pre-Professional Staff (Librarian Trainees): 15 work days per annum after one year.

c. Clerical Staff: Earn and are entitled to 10 days of annual leave after one year of full-time employment. There is one additional day of annual leave for each additional year of full-time employment, up to a total of 20 work days after 10 years of Library service.

3. Vacation Allowances - Part-Time Staff:

Part-time staff are permitted to take a total of two weeks off per year on their own time, or using their accrued time, to be requested in advance. Time off will be arranged at the Library’s convenience at the discretion of the Director.

Accrued Time: Part-Time Librarian Employees

A. All part-time employees earn accrued time, which can be used for illness or vacation on the following basis:

1. One hour for every fifteen hours worked is accrued. This time may be accumulated up to 150 hours.

2. This leave must be requested in advance, in writing, when being used for vacation.

3. If accrued time has not been earned, part-time staff may arrange with Director to take time off at their own expense and at the Director’s discretion.

4. Annual leave requests may be submitted no sooner than 60 days prior to the day being requested and will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. Refer to posted schedule for availability of time.

ARTICLE XIX

SICK LEAVE ACCRUED PAYMENT:

I. Fulltime Employees hired prior to July 1, 2004:
